his escape from a more serious blow is very fortunate for him & think & care him go by this forenoon with a gun ma ma is quite fortunate in having something to do she received a phone from Mrs. Fletchers saying that she and Walter would be up to dinner yesterday after church wanted to know what time we had dinner they are not keeping house yet Walter has an office and boards Walter boards in the school she is visiting around among friends has been in Carbondale since before Christmas she and Walter were to go to Scranton to day tomorrow Walter starts from there in time to get to school Tuesday morning and she goes up to Hasford and stays a while with her mother, Maggie and her others half and Sadie with her expected half were here before Mrs Fletcher went away Sadie and her nearly all stayed to supper they came up to see Ira but of course she rode out to the Homestead ma phoned to her and will bring her home then he had to go back